Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

As the summer wanes and the season moves along, the cross enters more and more into the scriptures of the liturgies. The liturgies in this latter part of the season begin to focus on the cost of following Jesus - to Jerusalem and to the cross.

Lectionary

■ THE GOSPEL: Today, Matthew's account of the Gospel moves into the fourth discourse of Jesus. The theme and focus is the Church. If a person should commit some wrong against you, Jesus counsels to engage the involvement of others and the Church, if necessary. The Gospel ends with a great image in this discourse on the life of the Church: wherever two or more gather in his name, Christ is in their midst.

■ FIRST READING: The First Reading is taken from the prophet Ezekiel. In today's section the Lord tells Ezekiel that if he does not warn the wicked and try to dissuade them from their sins, the Lord will hold the prophet responsible.

■ PSALM 95: The psalmist warns against hardening the heart at the sound of the Lord's voice.

■ SECOND READING: The Second Reading from the letter to the Romans assures us that the one who loves his or her neighbor follows the law of God; for love fulfills the law.

Next Sunday's Readings:

Numbers 21; 4b-9

Philippians 2; 6-11

John 3; 13-17

BIRTH OF THE VIRGIN MARY
Monday, September 8th

Although there is no historic support for September 8th as being the exact date of Mary's birth, Catholics have traditionally honored Mary on this day.

Pray for us.*

From the Pastor's Desk...

Dear Parishioners,

Where did the summer go? It seems like only yesterday that summer began; and now, our school is already open and our parish activities are in full swing. I hope that the summer was a time of refreshment and renewal for you and for your families.

During the summer we were busy working on decreasing our operating costs by installing new, more effective thermostats, adding automatic timers to control air-conditioning in the church, and changing all the light bulbs in our church to energy efficient bulbs, which should help to reduce our monthly energy costs. Our last monthly electric bill was over $11,000! Each hanging fixture in the church used 1440 watts and now, with the new bulbs, it is only 312 watts. That's a 78% reduction with the surprising result that the Church is also more evenly and brightly lighted than before.

September will be a busy month. CCD classes will begin the week of September 22nd; our Parish Picnic Carnival will begin at 2pm on Saturday, September 20th. We need volunteers to work on the games and man the booths. If you can help, see the bulletin for details.

The St. Thomas Annual Blood Drive will be on Sunday, September 28th; the Holy Name and Rosary Societies and all of our many organizations and groups will begin meeting again. Mark your calendars and be ready to join in!

Soon we will be conducting an increased giving appeal in our Church as well as looking for more people to serve our parish as Special Ministers of Communion at all the Sunday Masses. It will be a busy and exciting time.

Keep Father Philip and me in your prayers, that we may serve you well. In a special way, I ask your prayers for our young people, who will be celebrating their Confirmation next month, that they will discover in our community the support and love they need to continue to grow in the faith.

And finally, I ask God's blessing on you and those you love.

In the Lord,

Rev. Charles J. Miller,
Pastor

A Call to Political Responsibility from the Catholic Bishops of the United States

The following is an excerpt from a document, issued by the bishops in November, 2007, suggesting key issues for our prayerful reflection as we prepare to fulfill our responsibilities as voters in the national election this year. The full text of the document can be found at www.usccb.org/faithfulcitizenship/FCStatement.pdf. Additional resources for families, groups and individuals are available at www.faithfulcitizenship.org.

From: Why Does the Church Teach About Issues Affecting Public Policy

9. The Church's obligation to participate in shaping the moral character of society is a requirement of our faith. It is a basic part of the mission we have received from Jesus Christ, who offers a vision of life revealed to us in Sacred Scripture and Tradition. To echo the teaching of the Second Vatican Council: Christ, the Word made flesh, in showing us the Father's love, also shows us what it truly means to be human (see Gaudium et Spes, no. 22). Christ's love for us lets us see our human dignity in full clarity and compels us to love our neighbors as he has loved us. Christ, the Teacher, shows us what is true and good, that is, what is in accord with our human nature as free, intelligent beings created in God's image and likeness and endowed by the Creator with dignity and rights.

10. What faith teaches about the dignity of the human person and about the sacredness of every human life helps us see more clearly the same truths that also come to us through the gift of human reason. At the center of these truths is respect for the dignity of every person. This is the core of Catholic moral and social teaching. Because we are people of both faith and reason, it is appropriate and necessary for us to bring this essential truth about human life and dignity to the public square. We are called to practice Christ's commandment to "love one another" (Jn 13:34). We are also called to promote the well-being of all, to share our blessings with those most in need, to defend marriage, and to protect the lives and dignity of all, especially the weak, the vulnerable, the voiceless. In his first encyclical letter, Deus Caritas Est, Pope Benedict XVI explained that "charity must animate the entire lives of the lay faithful and therefore also their political activity, lived as 'social charity' " (no. 29).

SEPTEMBER 7, 2008 IS GRANDPARENTS DAY

Grandparents' Prayer of Blessing

God our Father, in whom we live, move and have our being, we thank you and praise you for those who are grandparents, long years lived in faith and in doing good.

Grant that they may have the loving support of their friends and relatives, that in good health they may be happy, and in poor health not lose hope. Sustained by the help of your blessing, let them spend their senior years giving praise to your name. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Anne & St. Joachim, parents of Mary, grandparents of Jesus, Pray for us.

The image of Sts. Anne and Joachim are depicted in stained glass in our St. Thomas Church in the window of Mary, Queen of the Universe.

*Feel good about yourself
Give blood*

*St. Thomas' Annual Blood Drive
Sunday, September 28, 2008
8 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Herron Hall*

Our blood banks are in need of all types of blood. Please consider this as your gift for life. Come to our blood drive and donate. We welcome our "regulars" and those of you who will be "first timer donors".

All donors must present signed or picture ID's and know their social security number.

Complimentary Cholesterol screening for all blood donors. For more information call the blood center of New Jersey at 973-676-4700. The following are some tips for a good donation experience.

BEFORE DONATING:

- Get a good night's sleep. Have a good breakfast or lunch. Eat iron-rich foods - beans, red meat, fish, poultry, iron-fortified cereals, raisins, prunes, etc. Drink extra water and fluids to replace the volume you will donate. Avoid tea, coffee, or other caffeinated beverages. Avoid fatty foods such as hamburgers, fries, or ice cream.

DURING DONATION:

- Relax. Wear clothing with sleeves that can be raised above the elbow. Show the staff any "good veins" that have been used successfully in the past to draw blood.

AFTER DONATION:

- Take the time to enjoy a snack and a drink afterwards. Immediately after donating, re-hydrate by drinking plenty of fluids over the next 24-48 hours. Avoid strenuous physical activity or heavy lifting for about five hours. If you feel light-headed after donating, lie down, preferably with feet elevated, until the feeling passes. Enjoy the good feeling that comes with knowing that you may have saved as many as three lives!

September 11th Reflection

*We remember them...
in the rising sun and in its going down.*

*We remember them...
In the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter.*

*We remember them...
When we are weary and in need of some strength.*

*We remember them...
When we are lost and sick of heart.*

*We remember them...
When we have joys we yearn to share.*

*We remember them...
So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us...*

As we remember them.
