Christ the King

When Pius XI established this feast (1925), the rise of totalitarianism all over the world must have made it seem that apocalyptic forces had been unleashed on the world. Bolshevism reigned in Russia, Fascism in Italy, the blood of civil war flowed in many places, and from every quarter came ominous forebodings of new dictatorships. So the pope proclaimed: Pax Christi in regno Christi: "The peace of Christ in the reign of Christ!" At century's end, is the world very different?

Some totalitarianism walls have crumbled, but in many places new forces of oppression have rushed in, no longer enslaving bodies and minds but hearts and souls in the bondage of consumerism. Thus, the feast is appropriate here at the turning point of the church's year of worship and witness. All Western Christian churches share it now - sometimes under different titles, but with the same scriptures, proclaiming in every cycle of the lectionary the unique kingship of Jesus the Lord.

After many years of effort, bereaved parents in The Compassionate Friends organization succeeded in having an official day set apart for families to remember their children who have died. By Senate resolution and a bill introduced to Congress, this day, the second Sunday in December, has received official designation.

On December 14th, candles will be lit by parents, grandparents and siblings at 7 pm in every time zone in memory of all children who have died, producing a wave of light that will encircle the earth. As the candles burn down in one time zone, it becomes 7 pm in another, creating a virtual 24-hour memorial. Memorial candles are inexpensive and can be obtained at local stores. Please observe safety precautions for the lighting of candles in the home.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

It is the duty of nations as well as of men to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God: to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon: and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is the Lord.

We know that by his divine law, nations, like individuals, are subjected to punishments and chastisements in this world. May we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war which now desolates the land may be a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people?

We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven: we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown.

But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own.

Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to the God that made us.

It has seemed to me fit and proper that God should be solemnly, reverently, and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and one voice, by the whole American people. I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

- Abraham Lincoln, 1863

Let us give thanks to the Lord
our God.
