Sixth Sunday of Easter

As the celebration of Easter nears its end and Pentecost approaches in 14 days, keep the joy of the Good News of the Resurrection alive. Sing the Alleluia and Gloria with joy and gusto.

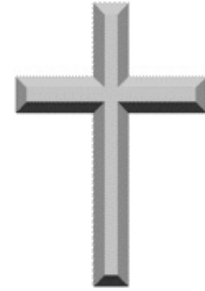

FIRST READING: The Jerusalem Church's resolution to send Judas and Silas with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch with the Church's decision, underscores the support and care that is to mark the relationship among the local Churches within the universal Church. A ruling that will grant freedom to Gentile converts from the practice of the Mosaic Law is not delivered as a simple proclamation, but is carried by representatives of the Church to symbolize the relational bonds of the Christian community within the one universal fellowship.

RESPONSORIAL: The Church sings Psalm 67 in which God is glorified for making his will known in response to the reading of the decision of the Counsel of Jerusalem. We pray in gratitude for the ways the Lord makes his will known to us in the community of the Church.

SECOND READING: In John's vision, the heavenly Jerusalem's gates and foundations represent the 12 tribes of Israel and the apostles, respectively. Faith in the one eternal and living God attested to among the tribes of Israel ultimately leads to an acknowledgment of Jesus Christ as the sure foundation of eternal life. The community of Israel and the community of the Twelve form a unity of faith in the living God.

GOSPEL: Jesus proclaims the initiation and preservation of God's indwelling. Faith in Jesus' word and a desire to live in love mark the initiation of the indwelling presence of God in the heart of believers. This presence is preserved by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit that reminds us of the words of Jesus. Jesus teaches his disciples that his going away is not to be feared, but welcomed, for it will occasion the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

From the Pastor's Desk...

Dear Parishioners,

Patient's Progress

I am happy to report that my surgeon says that I am making good progress in recuperating from my recent accident. The broken leg and ankle are much better, but I am still limited in what I can do. I hope the weekly therapy sessions will help me return to normal activity in the not-too-distant future.

Thank You

During the weeks I was in the hospital and nursing home, I received countless get-well cards, flowers, fruit baskets, letters from parishioners and friends wishing me a speedy recovery. I was not physically able to respond to them individually. So I want to take this opportunity to say "thank you" to all who were so thoughtful and caring.

I also want to thank Fathers Philip, Andrew, and Tom and all the members of the St. Thomas Staff for their extra efforts to keep all things running smoothly while I was away.

I especially want to thank Father Philip for his preparation for and coordination of the various special events and ceremonies of Lent and Easter. Many parishioners have told me how much they enjoyed celebrating Holy Week because of the beautiful services.

Father Philip Sanders

However, I must sadly report that the Archbishop has informed me that he will transfer Fr. Philip this June to Our Lady of Peace Church in New Providence. I am sad for us, but happy for Father Philip, since this is an important step for him to qualify to eventually become a pastor in our Archdiocese.

A New Priest

The Archbishop has also informed me that he plans to send a newly-ordained priest to our parish community to serve the needs of our people. In the meantime please pray for Father Philip and for our faith community here at St. Thomas the Apostle that this transition may go smoothly and according to God's will.

In the Lord,

Prayer for The Year for Priests

O Jesus, I pray for Your faithful and fervent priests; for Your unfaithful and tepid priests; for Your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for Your tempted priests; for Your lonely and desolate priests; for

Your young priests; for Your dying priests; for the souls of Your priests in purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to You the priests dearest to me; the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity.

Amen.
