Today is Father's Day!

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING: The horrid death of Jesus in itself did not move many to tears, except for those closest to him. It is the outpouring of a spirit of prayer that would bring forth tears and repentance at the recollection of the terror inflicted on God's only Son. The spirit of prayer invites us into the relationship between Father and Son, enabling us to see in Jesus' death the effects of our sin and the gift of mercy.

RESPONSORIAL: In praying Psalm 63 the Church recognizes the barrenness of life without the presence of God's life-giving spirit.

SECOND READING: The waters of Baptism bring about a profound equality among those immersed in it. Distinctions are washed away as each recipient is clothed in Christ Jesus. It is our relationship with Christ that makes every relationship new; each relationship is made new in a love for all that shows no partiality.

GOSPEL: Peter's proclamation of Jesus' identity as the Messiah was immediately followed by Jesus' announcement of the nature of his mission and of those who would accept his call to discipleship. As Jesus' identity and mission were inseparable, so too for his disciples. In self-emptying love, our identity and mission as disciples of Jesus are made manifest.

Last year, over 200,000 pairs of recycled eyeglasses were shipped to medical missions and international charitable organizations in 24 developing nations.

Members of Troop 22 will be at the Church exits today handing out flyers and again on June 27th to collect your used eyeglasses. There is also a collection box in the back of the Church. Every donation is appreciated. Thank you for your participation.

Prayer for The Year for Priests

O Jesus, I pray for Your faithful and fervent priests; for Your unfaithful and tepid priests; for Your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for Your tempted priests; for Your lonely and desolate priests; for Your young priests; for Your dying priests; for the souls of Your priests in purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to You the priests dearest to me; the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity.

Amen.

*St. John Vianney, pray for us;
obtain for us
many and holy priests.*

Oil Spill Prayer

Our LORD, Creator, Sustainer, and Redeemer,
 You alone are sovereign over creation.
 You alone created the heavens and the earth.
 You alone sustain and hold all things together.
 You alone are the redeemer and re-creator.

We praise You for Your wonderful creation,
 But now plead with You for your intervention.
 In the face of great tragedy, we turn to You.
 We ask that You step in with works of restoration.

Be with the families of those who were killed.
 May they be comforted with Your peace.
 Be with those who were injured.
 May they experience Your healing.
 Be with those whose jobs are affected.
 In an already tough economy,
 May they receive Your provision.
 Be with those who are working to contain and clean up.
 May they be guided and directed.

What a shame that Your creatures should suffer!
 Lord, please protect and heal them.
 What a shame that Your creation should be damaged!
 Lord, please protect and restore it.

As we ourselves are somewhat complicit in this tragedy,
 Forgive us for our role in this crisis.
 Teach us to reduce our own consumption,
 That we might better care for and protect Your creation.

We again acknowledge Your sovereignty.
 We pray that Your restorative work would be manifest,
 That Your kingdom come
 and Your will be done here and now,
 That Your name might be glorified in all the earth.

We pray all this in the name of our LORD,
 The Creator, Sustainer, and Redeemer of all things.

Amen.
