Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

When the new Roman calendar was promulgated after Vatican II by Pope Paul VI in 1969, the list of Marian feasts was reduced from 20 to 15 and relegated to one of three groups of greater to lesser solemnity. Today's solemnity is among the most important four, with the Annunciation of the Lord; the Immaculate Conception; and Mary, Mother of God. The second group comprises the feasts of the Visitation and the Nativity of Mary. The last group consists of four obligatory memorials and four optional memorials scattered throughout the year.

The origins of the solemnity of the Assumption are obscure, although its roots seem to be found in Jerusalem. Toward the end of the fifth century it was celebrated in Gethsemane at a basilica now known as the "Dormition." The term assumption appeared around 770.

Today, the liturgy invites Christians to see in the Virgin raised to heaven the icon of the Church and of all believers on the way to the eternal glory reserved for them by God.

FIRST READING: In the apocalyptic images of the woman clothed with the sun and the dragon, we are invited to contemplate the struggle between good and evil and to trust in God's providential care in procuring victory for good. The struggle between good and evil is not the imaginative prose of science fiction, but a reality of cosmic proportion. Yet, the birth of a son, the shepherd of all the nations, manifests God's triumph.

RESPONSORIAL: In chanting Psalm 45 the Church acclaim Mary as Queen of heaven and earth.

SECOND READING: Paul proclaims the radical re-ordering of the course of human history in the Resurrection of Jesus. Human-kind's primordial choice of death in the sin of Adam gives way to the victory of Christ over sin and death. We are called to rejoice and live in the power of Christ's victory.

GOSPEL: In her haste to share her encounter with and to serve Elizabeth, Mary finds herself embraced by Elizabeth's confirmation of God's visitation. In her welcome of Mary, Elizabeth is embraced by a song of God's delivering love, Humility marks the heart of each woman, touched and transformed by grace. Indeed, God does great things in all who await his coming.

ASSUMPTION OF MARY

Sunday, August 15
A Holy day

.....

The Solemnity of the Assumption celebrates Mary's entrance into heaven, body and soul. Mary is the first among the faithful to be fully redeemed because of her perpetually sinless state. Mary, because of her relationship to her Son, shares, through privileged anticipation, in the grace of the resurrection of the dead. Mary does not have to endure the suspension of eternal life until the resurrection of the dead.

The assumption of Mary was declared a dogma of faith to be believed by faithful Catholics, by Pope Pius XII on Nov. 1, 1950. The Solemnity is a holy day but not a holy day of obligation.

*Father in heaven,
all creation rightly gives you praise,
for all life and all holiness come from you.*

*In the plan of your wisdom
she who bore the Christ in her womb was raised body and soul in glory
to be with him in heaven.*

May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness and join in her hymn of endless love and praise.

Amen.
