Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Pope Urban IV first extended the feast of Corpus Christi to the universal Church in 1246. It originated during a time when reception of the sacrament of the Eucharist was practiced infrequently among the people. This gave rise to an already growing sense of devotion to the Eucharist, as the host was viewed by the faithful during the elevation at Mass. Over time, this came to be regarded as a principal means of obtaining grace—i.e., seeing (adoring) the Eucharist rather than receiving Holy Communion. Today's solemnity combines this medieval feast of the Most Holy Body of Christ with the nineteenth-century feast of the Most Precious Blood of Christ (Sanguis Pretiosissimus Christi). In doing this, the Church holds up for us the ideal regard that we should have for both species of the sacrament in Holy Communion. When Holy Communion is distributed under both kinds, it has a "fuller form," wherein "the Eucharist banquet is more clearly evident and clear expression is given to the divine will by which the new and eternal Covenant is ratified in the Blood of the Lord, as also the relationship between the Eucharist banquet and the eschatological banquet in the Father's kingdom".

FIRST READING: Moses reminds the people how God faithfully fed them and nourished them in the desert. He recalls the manna from heaven, which fed their hunger; and the water that came from the very rocks that made up the desert landscape.

PSALM 147: Psalm 147 proclaims the goodness of God, who feeds us with the finest of wheat. This psalm is often cited for its eucharistic overtones.

SECOND READING: The Second Reading is taken from St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. Although short, the reading references the cup from which we drink and proclaims our unity, which comes from partaking in the one loaf. The first lines of this reading are actually the response to the psalm we sing on Holy Thursday in the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper (Psalm 116).

GOSPEL: The Gospel is from the sixth chapter of John, and is an excerpt from the Bread of Life discourse. In no uncertain terms, Jesus asserts that he is bread from heaven, and that unless we eat his flesh and drink his blood, we cannot have life with him. Jesus, too, remembers the Israelites in the desert. Unlike them, we shall have life eternal because of the heavenly food we eat (the Eucharist).

Quotes from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal

June 26, 2011 - Part 7 of 7

On November 27, 2011, the English speaking Church in the USA will begin using a new translation of the prayers used at Mass (The Roman Missal). A series of quotes explaining the parts of the Mass from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) will be posted here. These explanations are meant to help the reader participate more fully in the Sunday Mass. Please check here weekly.

The Duties of the People of God

In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people whom God has made his own, a royal priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the spotless Victim not only through the hands of the priest but also together with him, and so that they may learn to offer themselves. They should, moreover, endeavor to make this clear by their deep religious sense and their charity toward brothers and sisters who participate with them in the same celebration.

Thus, they are to shun any appearance of individualism or division, keeping before their eyes that they have only one Father in heaven and accordingly are all brothers and sisters to each other.

Indeed, they form one body, whether by hearing the word of God, or by joining in the prayers and the singing, or above all by the common offering of Sacrifice and by a common partaking at the Lord's table. This unity is beautifully apparent from the gestures and postures observed in common by the faithful. (GIRM 95-96)

Prayer Shawl Ministry News

Our next meeting is Sunday, July 17th
from 11:30 to 2PM
at the Parish Center.

We recently gave prayer shawls to the Passaic County Drug Court commemorating the graduation of its participants from the program. Drug Court is an alternative to incarceration for those engaged in non-violent drug driven crime. We continue to pray for their success in life. Here is a note from the Coordinator:

Dear Sister Crimmins,

On behalf of the Passaic Vicinage Adult Drug Court, I would like to thank you for all the beautiful shawls your committee members made for our graduates. The shawls were given to them at the same time they received their award and certificate. All 27 graduates received a shawl.

Well the shawls were a big hit again. Many of the graduates inquired whether they were going to receive shawls because they have seen previous graduates get them. At one point we did not think we were going to have enough, but there were just enough for each graduate to get one. They were very thankful. You should have seen them looking into their gift bags to see what color shawl they had received; just like little children.

Your generosity, acts of service, and love, will be remembered every time they reach for their shawls. This is the third year you have extended yourself to our graduates. I can't thank you enough for your kindness and dedication to the community. Your hands are reaching many people; one shawl at a time

Sincerely,

Adrien Byrd
Drug Court Coordinator

- † Encouraging a commitment to justice and to service of those in need;
- † Promoting good stewardship of our time, talent and treasure;
- † Building a community of hospitality and support in the daily living out of Christian ideals by nourishing mutual respect and understanding within our Church, our families, our community, and other faith traditions.

Give a gift of stocks or bonds. There could be a significant tax advantage to you if there has been appreciation in their value and they are transferred to St. Thomas the Apostle Church.

A bequest in your will assures that your possessions are distributed as you desire. When making a bequest, use the full legal name and address: Saint Thomas the Apostle Church, 60 Byrd Avenue, Bloomfield, NJ 07003

Make St. Thomas the Apostle Church partial or primary beneficiary of a life insurance policy that is no longer needed for family security. Ask the insurance company for the forms necessary to change the beneficiary or to transfer the ownership to St. Thomas the Apostle Church.

KEEP CHRIST IN YOUR VACATION

During the summer months, let us remember to keep the Lord in our lives. The opportunity to witness His message through Scripture and to be strengthened by the Eucharist is a necessity in our relationship with God and with each other.

As you travel on vacation, take time to visit and worship the Lord in a nearby Church. For those remaining at home in your Parish, and to all visitors, the invitation for continued worship at St. Thomas's is extended and will certainly serve to enrich your summer. For Nationwide Mass Times & Locations, call 1-410-676-6000.
