Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God.

We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls "blessed" and "happy" are not people we think of as blessed or happy . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

"Blessed" is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, and those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God.

World Day for Consecrated Life

Since 1997, the universal Church has celebrated the World Day for Consecrated Life. On Thursday, February 2, 2017 in the Cathedral Basilica at 7:30 pm on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord the Archdiocese will observe this day with a special emphasis on the call to consecrated life in today's world. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. Come join us in joyful prayer! The consecrated life is one way that men and women live out their baptismal commitment as followers of Jesus. Some become members of a religious congregation or a secular institute. Others remain single and make a profession to God through the local bishop and are known as consecrated virgins. We recognize and give thanks for those who have consecrated their lives to God and the Church through the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience.

His Eminence Joseph Cardinal Tobin invites all the faithful to gather in celebration, support and thanksgiving with Evening Prayer with the blessing and lighting of candles. Come join in the unceasing prayer of the church.

This invitation is extended in a special way to the members of every parish as a means of supporting and thanking the consecrated men and women of our Archdiocese for their selfless gift of service to our local Church. Come celebrate with us on Thursday, February 2nd in the Cathedral Basilica at 7:30 pm as we gather in the spirit of that call!

Mark these dates on your calendars:

Prayer Shawl Ministry Meeting Sunday, February 19 11:30 in the Parish Center

All crafters are welcome to join us. We meet in the St. Peter's room at 11:30 until 1:30. The meeting gives our members a chance to pray and work together—to exchange patterns and ideas. You do not need to attend these meetings to be an active member.

An active prayer... As I knit this shawl, the work of my hands and the faith of my soul ask God to bring blessings upon you. A gift received, a prayer accepted. The receiver physically and spiritually wrapped in the shawl, the prayers of the giver -- prayers for comfort, for healing, a blessing, or thanksgiving.

During these cold winter months, a prayer shawl or lap robe, which can be had for the asking, may well be comforting to someone limited in activity or going through a difficult time.

You may request a shawl by speaking to one of our members, dropping by during one of our meetings or by calling the parish center and speak to Mary or Gerry.

Let us continue to pray for those making shawls and those who receive them.

Summer CCD

If you have children and a busy schedule, our Summer CCD program might be just the help you need. We offer classes for children going into Grades 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8. We also offer class for students who are going into Grade 2 in school but have never been to CCD before. Classes run each day from June 26th - July 7th from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm. No absences are permitted.

Summer CCD teachers are desperately needed for all grades. If you have ever thought of volunteering and helping in our church in any way please consider teaching CCD - it is a truly rewarding experience! If the commitment of two weeks is too much for you, we can pair you up with a team teacher who can teach one week while you teach the other. This is also a great opportunity for college students who are studying to become teachers. Please consider helping out with our Summer CCD program - if interested, please call Tracey Hann at 973-338-7400 or email at rclan1@verizon.net. Thanks!
